

Yodpong Chantarasorn

Education and Training

Retinal fellowship

Rajavithi Hospital, Bangkok, Thailand

Retinal fellowship

Harvard Medical School, Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary, Boston, MA

Biography

Dr.Chantarasorn received the first degree honor of MD degree from Chulalongkorn university, Bangkok in 2005. He completed residency training in Chiang Mai University (2007-2011), and retina fellowship training at Rajavithi Hospital, Bangkok (2011-2013). He then finished his Oversea study and obtained a certificate in Research Fellowship of Vitreoretinal Disease from Mass Eye and Ear Infirmary, Harvard Medical School (2017-2018), and Certificate in Applied Biostatistics (2017-2018). Up through the present, he has been a full-time faculty of the Retinal Service at Vajira Hospital, Navamindradhiraj University with the membership of Thai Retina Society, The International Ocular Circulation Society, and the Vice Liaison Leadership (Asia/Pacific) of the American Society of Retina Specialist (2020-2021).